WARNING
Canoeing and kayaking can be dangerous. Serious bodily injury and loss of life can and does occur. Varying water levels, holes, drop-offs, fallen trees, sharp objects, rock's dams, water current, undertow and other obstructions of the Huron River create constantly changing conditions and hazards. Do not attempt to swim or wade in the river. Avoid rapid areas. There is a danger of being swamped by waves when attempting to take canoes or kayaks into rapids. This is essential the route be thoroughly scouted.
PADDLING TIPS Life Preservers- Whether you own, rent or borrow a canoe or kayak, make sure there is a Personal Flotation Device for each person on board. Wear Footwear in case you tip over. Learn to Maneuver Safely- Steering and back-paddling to avoid hazards are important. Portaging- Caution should always be used when approaching a portage area. Leave ample space between canoes or kayaks for loading and unloading. Keep Safe- Splashing each other with paddles and throwing objects at others can lead to tips and spills. A tipped boat could be fatal. Respect Private Property- Please picnic on public property. Don't Litter- Attach a bag to your boat. After picnicking, clean up the site and place debris in provided trash receptacles. Keep Your Gear Dry- Pack your gear in waterproof bags and attach them to the canoe or kayak. If you tip over, they will stay dry and float along with you and the boat.
